

Trainees' Conference

Thursday 17 September 2020

3-minute thesis presentations

13:15 – 13:55 Session 1 – Early stage PhD students
Presenter	PhD Project Title
Sophie Fawson King's College London	Understanding psychosocial factors associated with distress in women survivors of breast cancer and assessing the efficacy of a mobile app-based intervention
Florian Hansen King's College London	Using Virtual Reality to Assess Negative Symptoms associated with Schizophrenia
Timothy Lawn King's College London	Pain and the neurodegenerating brain
Jessica Mundy King's College London	The genetics of the mood disorder spectrum
Suzanne O'Brien King's College London	Born Bad? Can we treat children at risk of becoming psychopaths
Abigail ter Kuile King's College London	Investigating the genomics of anxiety and mood disorders and the genome-wide interplay with environmental stressors.
Lizzy Tuudah King's College London	Improving the care of people with type 2 diabetes and severe mental illness using experience-based co-design
Nathan Huneke University of Southampton	Investigating the Mechanisms of Placebo Anxiolysis
Rebecca Green King's College London	Investigating the use of blood metabolites as biomarkers of cognitive decline and subsequent dementia
Danielle Huisman King's College London	Exploring biopsychosocial mechanisms of abdominal pain in Inflammatory Bowel Disease and Irritable Bowel Syndrome

Information about the 3-minute thesis presentations and research showcase sessions can be viewed on the conference webpages:

3-minute thesis presentations

14:50 – 15:30 Session 2 – Mid stage PhD students
Presenter	PhD Project Title
Jonathan Rogers University College London	Catatonia – epidemiology and inflammatory markers
Lucy Chester King's College London	Δ -9-tetrahydrocannabinol, cannabidiol and psychosis
Claudia Chisari King's College London	Because It's not "all in your head": development of an evidence-based model and treatment for Vulvodynia
Katrina Davis King's College London	Co-prescribing in Dementia
Valeria de Angel King's College London	Can Digital Tools help in the Assessment of Prognosis in Depression?
Julia Griem King's College London	The differentiation of antisocial personality disorder with and without psychopathy using neuropsychology and neuroimaging probes
Paris Lalouis University of Birmingham	Neuroimaging and Clinical Predictors of Recovery from Depression and Psychosis
Isobel Ridler King's College London	Applications of Regularised Structural Equation Modelling to Psychometrics and Psychiatric Genetics
Rachel Rodrigues Imperial College London	What Drives Self-harm?
Livia Bridge King's College London	Development of an intervention to improve self-esteem in sexual minority young adults

Information about the 3-minute thesis presentations and research showcase sessions can be viewed on the conference webpages

3-minute thesis presentations

15:40 – 16:20 Session 3 – Final stage PhD students
Presenter	PhD Project Title
Hema Chaplin King's College London	Persistent physical symptoms in inflammatory arthritis – redefining and exploring refractory disease
Nikou Damestani King's College London	Silent fMRI: A Novel Approach to Imaging the Brain in Health and Disease
Stephanie Fincham-Campbell King's College London	An exploratory study of the social networks of dependent drinkers
Georgia Lada University of Manchester	Psoriasis, psoriatic arthritis and suicidality: is there a link?
Asha Ladwa University of Exeter	How do psychological treatments for depression work?
Maria Antonietta Nettis King's College London	Minocycline in Depression (MINDEP)
Ilyas Sagar-Ouriaghli King's College London	Can we engage men with mental health support?
Elystan Roberts University of Bristol	Pubertal Timing and Self-Harm
Callum Stewart King's College London	Building personalised models in remote monitoring of disease
Dimosthenis Tsapekos King's College London	Cognitive impairment in bipolar disorder: exploring the treatment mechanisms of cognitive remediation therapy

Information about the 3-minute thesis presentations and research showcase sessions can be viewed on the conference webpages